

ACTIVATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR AETHERX APPAREL

Your AetherX clothing item comes deactivated when you receive it. When you receive your AetherX Apparel (Tshirt, etc.) and wear it, place any hand on the symbol upon the apparel item to begin activation...

STEP 1: Healing Mode

Place any hand on the printed symbol upon your worn clothing item.

State the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Activate HEALING mode.”

Exhale slowly for approximately 2-3 seconds after you have issued this command. This is so you can flow your life force energy (prana) through the symbol, and it will work with your life force energy.

The symbol on the clothing item contains all the living command codes for the clothing item and perform all actions when it is activated using residual life energy stored in your solar plexus to accomplish all tasks commanded into your clothing item. All healing experiences you encounter through the clothing item are always through your own life energy.

STEP 2: Transfer Mode (Optional)

Your clothing item has the ability to turn you into a healing facilitator as your life force energy works with the life force energy of another to transfer and share the Healing mode function of your clothing item with someone else who is not wearing AetherX apparel. This is done by activating Transfer mode. Once activated, you can place your hands upon another as they receive the benefits of Healing mode through your AetherX clothing item. As you receive the effects of Healing mode, so will the other you share with this via Transfer mode.

To activate Transfer mode, place any hand upon the printed symbol of your worn clothing item.

State the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Activate TRANSFER mode.”

Exhale slowly for approximately 2-3 seconds after you have issued this command.

Once activated, place your hands upon the other who you would like to share transfer mode with. Hands can be placed anywhere upon the other’s body for them to feel the effects of Healing mode upon themselves. Feel free to remain with your hands upon the other for as long as you both feel comfortable.

At anytime, you can switch between Healing and Transfer modes through the Step 1 and Step 2 instructions.

STEP 3: Bliss Mode (Optional)

Optionally, you have the ability to place your AetherX clothing item into Bliss mode. Bliss mode works on activating your parasympathetic nervous system, balancing your brainwaves, and bringing you into a low idle, subtle state of being as you raise your energetic frequency to a higher level. Bliss mode stabilizes the body and encourages natural relaxation and a highly blissful state of being. This mode is recommended to be used when you are looking to relax and meditate. It should not be used for active states.

To activate Bliss mode, place any hand upon the printed symbol of your worn clothing item.

State the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Activate BLISS mode.”

Exhale slowly for approximately 2-3 seconds after you have issued this command.

Once activated, let yourself relax and vibe into the feelings and sensations you’re experiencing as Bliss mode works to relax, center, and energetically heighten the body bringing you into an elevated and calm state of being.

At anytime, you can switch between Healing and Transfer modes through the Step 1 and Step 2 instructions.

STEP 3: Amplification (Optional)

Optionally, you have the ability to amplify the intensity of the Aether Clothing item's function by placing your hand on the symbol and stating the following out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Increase amplification by (desired) percent.”

(The Aether Clothing by default is at 0% amplification. You can raise the amplification between 1-100% in scale)

You can also decrease the amplification, placing your hand on the symbol and stating out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Decrease amplification by (desired) percent.”

And, if you wish to deactivate amplification, placing your hand on the symbol and stating out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Turn amplification off.”
