

ACTIVATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE AETHER BED

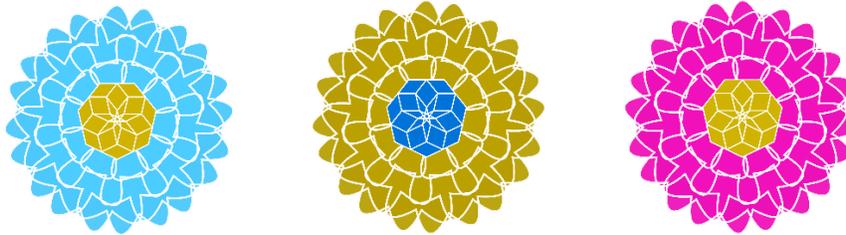

When you receive your AetherX Aether Bed kit, it should consist of the following:

- 2 x pillow cases
- 1 x bed sheet
- 1 x duvet cover

Once you have placed the bed kit on your bed, to activate the Aether Bed, perform the following...

STEP 1: Standard Healing or Sleep Mode

Place either hand on the Activator symbol that matches the color theme of your Aether Bed:

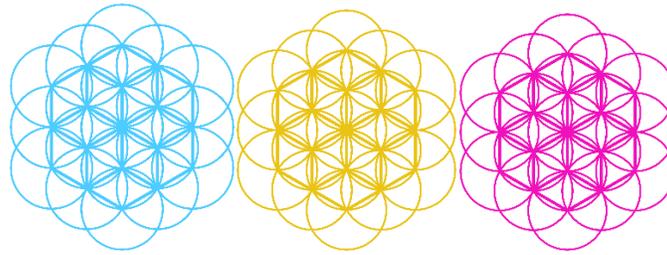

State the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Aether Bed, Activate HEALING mode.”

Or

“Aether Bed, Activate SLEEP mode.”

Repeat this step for the remaining parts of the Aether Bed (pillow cases, bed sheet, and duvet cover).

The Absorber symbols above contain all the living command codes for the bed and perform all actions when the bed is activated (in either Healing or Sleep mode) using residual life energy stored in your solar plexus to accomplish all tasks commanded into the Aether Bed. All healing experiences you encounter through the Aether Bed are always through your own life energy.

STEP 2: (Optional) UNIVERSAL Healing or Sleep Mode

The Universal Healing or Sleep Mode option enables the activation of the bed by the User so that others can utilize the bed's functions without the need to activate it themselves. For instance, if Jennifer activates the bed herself through the commands below, her husband, children and family dog can all use the bed and receive the benefits without the need to activate it themselves. The bed remains in either Universal Healing or Universal Sleep mode until it is turned off by the User. This option is beneficial for those who are nonverbal and would like to receive the benefits of the Aether Bed Kit.

State the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Aether Bed, Activate UNIVERSAL HEALING mode.”

Or

“Aether Bed, Activate UNIVERSAL SLEEP mode.”

Repeat this step for the remaining parts of the Aether Bed (pillow cases, bed sheet, and duvet cover).

To deactivate Universal Sleep mode, state the following either out loud or in your mind with the thought:

“Aether Bed, Turn Universal Healing Mode OFF.”

Or

“Aether Bed, Turn Universal Sleep Mode OFF.”

Once the command is made to turn these off, please repeat Step 1 again to enable Standard Sleep or Healing Mode.

Concentrated Healing Function

When the Aether Bed is either in HEALING or SLEEP mode, place either hand on the Activator Symbol and state your request for concentrated healing on any area of your body. For example:

“Aether Bed, concentrate on my right knee.” Or

“Aether Bed, concentrate on my emotional vulnerabilities.”

This command will stay with the Aether Bed and work on your requested area will be concentrated on until you cancel out the command. To do this, place either hand on the Activator symbol and state...

“Aether Bed, cancel my concentration request.”

What is the difference between HEALING mode and SLEEP mode?

HEALING MODE:

In Healing mode, the Aether Bed performs the following on your physical body:

- Detoxification and rejuvenation of the body’s major organs, glands and bodily systems.
- Cleansing and rejuvenation of your chakra centers, nadi channels (energetic nervous system) and acupuncture meridians.
- Elimination of any pain, soreness, ache, stiffness, inflammation, burning sensations within the body.
- Gradual transformation of the physical body on a cellular level to encourage youthful appearance of the physical body.

SLEEP MODE:

In Sleep mode, the Aether Bed performs the following:

- All functions included above from Healing mode.
- Stabilization of all brainwave states: Beta, Alpha, Theta, Delta and Gamma.
- Encourages a deep, restful sleep through your life energy.
- Encourages a vivid/lucid dreaming state while you enter REM sleep through your life energy.
- Connects directly to your higher self while you're asleep, and scans your physical, mental, and emotional bodies detecting any karmic debts attached to you and negotiates with the Higher Self through the infinite intelligence of your life energy to loosen and sever karmic agreements.
 - Detection of forgiven karmic agreements are often depicted in our dreams, and through successfully forgiven agreements, you may a positive difference when you wake up in the morning feeling lighter and more energized.

STEP 3 (Optional)

AMPLIFICATION for the Aether Bed

Optionally, you have the ability to amplify the intensity of the Aether Bed's function by placing your hand on the Activator symbol and stating the following out loud or in your mind with the thought:

"Aether Bed, increase amplification by (desired) percent."

(The Aether Bed by default is at 0% amplification. You can raise the amplification between 1-100% in scale)

You can also decrease the amplification, placing your hand on the Activator symbol and stating out loud or in your mind with the thought:

"Aether Bed, decrease amplification by (desired) percent."

And, if you wish to deactivate amplification, placing your hand on the Activator symbol and stating out loud or in your mind with the thought:

"Aether Bed, turn amplification off."

IMPORTANT REMINDERS WHEN USING THE AETHER BED...

#1 – It's recommended not to use Amplification settings on the Aether Bed right away. Try the Aether Bed at 0% amplification for the first week. After the first week, then you can apply amplification starting at approximately 5-10%. Once you set your amplification around that range, wait another week before increasing, but set it for an additional 5-10%. If you do decide to amplify the Aether Bed immediately, you are doing it at your own risk, but it is not recommended as the energy of the bed may be too intense for you and will be too much intensified subtle energy charge for your body. This could lead to headaches, stomach aches, coughing, nausea or other symptoms. Please take your time and be patient in using the Aether Bed so as not be overcharged by your subtle energy prematurely with amplification. Thank you.

#2 – All sheets and pillow cases of the bed contain the AetherX codes once you have activated the bed in any of the modes mentioned above. You don't need to concern in having the symbols face you, or face away from you. The materials of the bed are covered in the AetherX codes to work with your solar plexus' living prana as soon as they are activated. You can wear clothes when on the bed and the bed kit will still work on you. What's important to remember is to make sure you are putting "weighted" contact on the sheets. Meaning you can have other sheets and blankets on the bed, even overtop of the bed kit, but it is when your body weight is upon the bed that you will feel the effects of the bed kit when active.

#3 - Please remember that your own subtle energy (prana) is the power source to the Aether Bed. It is your own subtle energy that is being commanded through the imbued codes contained inside the geometry that is replenishing and rejuvenating your body. As it is subtle energy, improvement of the physical body will appear more prominent over time. Continue to utilize the benefits of the Aether Bed each night through either the Healing or Sleep modes, and you will seem improvement in yourself gradually in the days and weeks ahead.
